

*Show me your achievement,
and the knowledge will give me courage for mine.*

- Ayn Rand

Timothy Nash – N Vision Learning Consultant Profile

Timothy Nash brings a highly diverse professional background to the field of leadership development. Joining N Vision Learning Solutions as a Learning Consultant in 2009, he specializes in leading self development programs.

Whether helping to craft a high impact presentation or to establish a successful relationship with an international business partner, Timothy aims to maximize the potential of his learners by recognizing their specific needs and providing them with the necessary tools to reach their objectives. Empowering others to achieve personal and professional growth is both an aim and a passion.

Professional Background

From leading intercultural workshops for medical students at the LMU to facilitating dynamic programs for top executives at Allianz SE, Timothy has been in the people development business since 1995. After a brief career in banking and finance in the USA, he worked three years as a trainer in South Korea and Japan. With 15 years of valuable work experience on three continents, Timothy has an excellent understanding of cross-cultural behavior and communication. This first-hand knowledge enables him to coach others to act and communicate effectively in an international environment.

In addition to a background in business, human resources, education and training, Timothy works as a studio voice actor on English voice projects for several large companies such as Volkswagen, SAP, McDonald's and BMW among others. Additionally, he has written and acted in a series of videos for the web-based learning platform, dalango. As an active member of SIETAR Deutschland (The Society for Intercultural Training and Research), he recently contributed an article for SIETAR Europa's e-magazine on globalization.

Additional Information

Timothy was born in Los Angeles, California in 1971. In addition to English as his native language, he speaks German and basic Japanese. In 1993 Timothy graduated cum laude with a BA in American History and Business Administration.